PRIVACY STATEMENT

Last revised: 16 June 2016

Introduction

Welcome to the Application Lifecycle Management website (this “Website”). This Privacy Statement describes the ways in which we collect personal information from you as part of managing authentication and access to this Website, and what we may use it for.

Please note that this Website may contain links to other sites, including without limitation, other sites maintained by Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited (“DTTL”) or DTTL member firms and their respective affiliates which may not be governed by this Privacy Statement. We encourage you to review each website's privacy statement before disclosing any personal information.

Information Collection and Use

In order to register and gain access to this Website, you are asked to provide your full name, email address, company, etc., so that we can establish your account. This information is used to verify your identity each time you log in. You may also have the option to submit additional information such as telephone number, the name of your company, and your professional position. This information will be used to manage your account and customize and improve this Website.

Please note that personal or other information that you upload or post via this Website may also be read or used by other authorized users who have been granted access to the sections of this Website that to which you have access.

Log Information, Cookies and Web beacons

This Website uses cookies (small text files stored in your browser) to identify you when you connect to this Website. Your browser must be enabled to allow cookies in order to access this Website. Upon successful login, cookies are created and placed on your machine. In addition to information related to authentication, information may be stored in the cookies in order to direct you to the correct site location. To ensure that this Website is well managed and to facilitate improved navigation, we or our service provider(s) may also use cookies or Web beacons (electronic images that allow this Website to count visitors who have accessed a particular page and to access certain cookies) to collect aggregate data.

This Website also collects standard internet log information, including your IP address, browser type and language, access times, and referring website addresses.

Most browsers can be set to inform you when a cookie has been sent to you and provide you with the opportunity to reject that cookie. However, refusing a cookie may, in some cases, preclude you from using, or negatively impact the display or function of, this Website or certain areas or features of this Website.

By using this Website you agree that we can place cookies on your computer or device as explained above. Please contact your Deloitte Project Manager (Deloitte users may contact the support team) if you would like more detailed information on the cookies we use.

Disclosure of Information to Third Parties

This Website is hosted in the United States. Due to the nature of this Website, any personal information sent or uploaded to the system may also be accessible in other jurisdictions outside your home jurisdiction. This may involve transfers of your personal information to countries or regions without data protection rules similar to those in effect in your home jurisdiction. By registering for or using this Website, you are consenting to such transfers.

Any personal information sent or uploaded may also be made accessible to third parties providing services on our behalf, such as the administration and management of this Website.

Where appropriate, personal information may also be disclosed to law enforcement, regulatory, or other government agencies, or third parties where necessary to comply with legal or regulatory obligations or requests or for the purposes identified above.

Access to Information

You can review and update your profile information by contacting your Deloitte Project Manager (Deloitte users may contact the support team). In all cases requests to access or update information will be treated in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Information Security

This Website has in place reasonable commercial standards of technology and operational security to protect personal information provided by you from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration or destruction.

Changes to our Privacy Statement

We may modify or amend this Privacy Statement from time to time at our discretion. When we make changes to this Privacy Statement, we will amend the revision date at the top of this page. We encourage you to periodically review this Privacy Statement to be informed about how we are protecting your personal information.
